

FREE MUSEUM DAY IN SANTA YNEZ VALLEY Saturday, March 1

FOR THE FIRST TIME, THESE SIX SANTA YNEZ VALLEY MUSEUMS ARE OFFERING FREE ADMISSION TO ALL ON THE SAME DAY. LOOK FOR THE GREEN FLAG AT EACH VENUE.

BUELLTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY HISTORY ROOM www.buelltonhistory.org

376 Avenue of Flags Buellton
10:00 am-5:00 pm 805-688-7829

In 1949, Buellton was named "Service Town USA" in recognition of the service stations, motels and diners lining a newly widened US Highway 101 through the center of town. Find out more about Service Town and the Buell Ranch in the History Room located in Andersen's Pea Soup Restaurant above the gift shop.

ELVERHOJ MUSEUM OF HISTORY & ART www.elverhoj.org

1624 Elverhoy Way Solvang
10:00 am-4:00 pm 805-686-1211

Located in a historic handcrafted Danish-style structure, the Elverhøj Museum showcases Solvang's rich history and celebrates the Danish-American pioneer spirit and the colorful heritage of Denmark. The Museum features special living history demonstrations for Museum Day. The Museum Gallery presents changing exhibitions of regional, national and international art.

HANS CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN MUSEUM www.bookloftsolvang.com/museum.htm

1680 Mission Drive Solvang
9:00 am-5:00 pm 805-688-2052

Honoring the multi-talented Danish father of the modern fairy tale, such as "The Ugly Duckling", "The Little Mermaid", "The Emperor's New Clothes", "The Princess and the Pea". This second story garret above the Book Loft store is filled to the rafters with copies of Andersen's books, sketches, silhouettes and collages.

LOS ALAMOS HISTORICAL DISPLAY www.losalamosinfo.com

Bell & Helena Streets Los Alamos
10:00 am-5:00 pm 805-260-8233

Los Alamos was established in 1876 as the United States celebrated its 100th anniversary. The founders John Bell and James Shaw named one of the main streets "Centennial" in honor of this event. Find out more about this western-style rural town at this newly opened historic exhibit.

SANTA YNEZ VALLEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM www.syvm.org

3596 Sagunto Street Santa Ynez
12:00-4:00 pm 808-688-7889

Tracing Santa Ynez Valley history from the early Chumash Indians through its 20th-century ranching days. Featuring a running model train exhibit depicting the Pacific Coast Railway and early transportation history. The Carriage House has the largest selection of horse-drawn vehicles and carriages in the Western USA.

WILDLING ART MUSEUM www.wildlingmuseum.org

2329 Jonata Street Los Olivos
11 am-5:00 pm 805-688-1082

Located in the historic Keenan-Hartley House near Mattei's Tavern, the Wildling presents America's wilderness in art; Alissa J. Anderson, an independent art appraiser, will be at the Wildling from 12-2pm to offer general evaluations of your artworks. She will offer advise about the relative value as well as conservation needs for paintings and drawings done between 1800-1975.